According to the Foreign and Political Department Notification No.261-I dated the 24th April 1929, amendments made to the Indian Income-tax Act in British India automatically applied to the Civil and Military Station whereas the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore (Application of Laws) Order, 1937 which has superseded the above does not contain such a provision. According to paras 3 & 4(b) of the latter order only the Income-tax Act 1922, as amended before 1st April 1937 and as adopted or modified by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order 1937 is applicable. It therefore appears necessary that the Crown Representative should be requested to extend the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1939 to the Station, with the exception of the sections referred to in the 2nd column of the Schedule to the Civil and Military Station (Application of Laws) Order, 1937.

(1) Section 64

(2) Section 66 (8).

It is unnecessary to exclude specifically these sections while applying the Amendment Act of 1939 because they have been already excluded while applying the main Act to the Station.

The Indian Incometax (Amendment) Act, 1939, has already been applied to the Station, with certain modifications, by Notification of the Political Department No.87-I.B., dated the 28th March 1939. The question whether any further modifications are necessary is examined below.

Please see the modifications made to the Act of 1922 in its application to the Station: certain sections have been (i) omitted, and certain others (ii) modified. Among the sections thus omitted or modified, the Amending Act touches sections 64 and 66(8): please see sections 81 and 82(d) of the Amending Act. Perhaps it is not strictly necessary to omit sections ~~81~~ and ~~82(d)~~, because they are inoperative; but for the sake of consistency, sections 81 and clause (d) of section 82 of the Amending Act may be omitted.

Another modification which will be necessary is as regards the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Incometax. Please see letter from this Residency where it has been recommended that no Inspecting A.C. need be appointed for the Station. If this recommendation is accepted, sections 23-A, 28 and 53 of the Act of 1922 as amended by the Act of 1939, which confer certain statutory powers on the Assistant Commissioner(Inspecting) will have to be modified. And for this purpose, it will be necessary to await the orders of the Political Department.

(B) (R)

Another modification which will be necessary is the omission of section 83 of the Amending Act, because it is inoperative in the Station.

As stated in para 19 of notes, the modifications referred to therein have to await Political Department orders. In the meantime F.A. (I.T.O.) may be requested, if approved, to kindly say u/o. whether any further modifications are necessary for the effective working of the Amendment Act in the Station. After receipt of his suggestions, all the modifications will be considered together, and a draft notification submitted for approval. (In this connection it may be noted that the Political Department have issued Notification No. 198-I.B., dated the 15th June 1939, in the latest issue of the Gazette of India - 17-6-1939 - applying the Incometax (Amendment) Act, 1939, to the District of Abu with the identical modifications as in the Station Act and nothing more. 24. There has been no Inspecting Assistant Commissioner since Captain Biscoe left. It appears that the Secretary to the Resident (now Commissioner) may be declared as the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner and the Resident as Commissioner. It has already been approved that the Resident should be the Commissioner in the event of -- Retrocession. The functions of the Commissioner will be nominal as after the Appellate Tribunal begins functioning there will be no review by Commissioner and appeals against the orders of Appellate Asst. Commissioner will be to the Appellate Tribunal - vide Sections 87 & 88 of the Amendment Act 1939 deleting Section 32 and amending Section 33 of the Income-tax Act 1922. 25 The existing hierarchy in the Station is as follows:

Commissioner	---	Secretary
Appellate Asst.Commsr.	---	Collector
Inspecting Asst.Commsr.	---	Asst.Secretary and then Under Secretary
Income-tax Officer	---	Treasury Officer.

S 26 Please see the modifications to which the Income-tax (Amendment) Act,1939, has been subjected in its application to the Station. According to the Act as in force in the Station, then, Part II (sections 85 to 92) must be brought into force not later than 1st April 1941. Under section 5-A of the Act (as inserted by section 85 of this Amendment Act), the Crown Representative must appoint an Appellate Tribunal for the Station. When an Appellate Tribunal is constituted, appeals from the orders of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner will lie only to the Tribunal, and as stated in para 1 above, the functions of the Commissioner will be only nominal. The first question for consideration is whether Resident, who is the head of the Administration, should be entrusted with the functions of an officer subordinate to the head of the Government. The case of the future Cantonment is slightly different. It would be a very small geographical area and administrative unit, and most of the officers would have more than one function. But the present Civil and Military Station is one of the largest Administered Areas in India, and it is doubtful whether it is right in practice that the head of the Government should also be a subordinate officer of the Government, although nominally and only on paper.

27 If it is agreed that it may, if possible, be avoided that Resident may be appointed (by the Crown Representative)

Representative) Commissioner of Income-tax, the following courses are for consideration. The District Judge may be the Appellate Assistant Commissioner and the Collector Inspecting Assistant Commissioner: please see paras 19 to 21 of notes on R.F.345 of 1939. If it is considered for any reason as in para 22 of notes that District Judge should not be entrusted with the appellate functions, Extra Assistant to the Resident may be the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner and succeed Assistant Secretary and Under Secretary, and the existing arrangements will continue. Another course is that Inspecting Assistant Commissioner may be entirely dispensed with as in the case of Minor Administrations: please see paras 27 to 30 of notes and S.N.2/cor.p.3 of 345 of 1939. Statutory duties of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner are very few and are contained in sections 23A, 28 and 53 of the Act - please see paras 11 to 13 of notes on that file. But these can be transferred to the Appellate Assistant Commissioner or the Commissioner as the case may be: please see para 14 of notes. The Political Department, however, appointed an Inspecting Assistant Commissioner as well.

While forwarding proposals in behalf of the appointments discussed above, it is necessary to ask the Political Department to appoint a date on which Part II of the Act shall come into force. In British India Part II came into force today (25th January 1941)- vide Finance Department (Central Revenues) Notification No.2 dated the 18th January 1941. Appellate Tribunals have already been constituted in British India; and perhaps the services of the Madras Bench or the Bench having jurisdiction in Madras may be utilised in regard to this Station. Please see in this connection para 4 of Political Department's letter dated the 15th June 1940. It is perhaps unnecessary to have a Tribunal only for this Station, and it is not known whether it is proposed by the Political Department to have a Tribunal for all the Administered Areas. The question may be referred to them. For orders.

30 Please see paras 2 to 4 of Part II - Note 1. General Administration. After retrocession the hierarchy of Income-tax officers in the Administered Areas will be as follows :-

1. Commissioner of Income-tax.	Resident.
2. Appellate Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax.	Secretary to Resident.
3. Income-tax Officer.	Collector. (Borrowed Deputy Collector from Madras.)

'J'.

31 There will be no Inspecting Assistant Commissioner -- vide para 3 of S.N.9 and para 2 of S.N.14 of R.83-39(10-1).

32. F Discussed with FC the simplest solution seems to be to leave functions as they are & give the Commissioner the office of ~~Appellate~~ Inspecting Asstt. Comr as well. The hierarchy would then be 1) Comm. & ~~Appellate~~ Inspecting Asstt. Comr. Lee to Collr
2) Appellate Asstt. Comr. Collector
3) I.T.O. Treas. Offr.

Draft may be prepared accordingly.

GM 4/2.

39. Para 9 of notes: When part II of the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act,1939, is brought into force, and the Appellate Tribunal commences to function, the various statutory duties of the Commissioner will cease, and there should be no objection from the point of view of the working of the Act that the offices of Commissioner and Inspecting Assistant Commissioner are combined in one Officer. But please see the rules made by the Governor General in Council under the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules relating to the office of the Income-tax Officer in the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore. In respect of penalties (iii) to (vii) mentioned in Rule 3 and imposed by the Assistant Commissioner, the appellate authority is the Commissioner, and hence it appears there will be a clash. The matter will be further examined and note submitted. The appointment of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner can be made with retrospective effect - vide notification of the Political Department No.51-I.B., dated the 6th March 1940 - and the present absence of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner will be regularised. As pointed out in para 4 above, the statutory duties of that Officer are very few, and are contained in sections 23A, 28 and 53 of the Act. Correspondence is still carried in the name of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner, for his office is deemed to be the office of the Income-tax Officer. Circulars and other notifications received from the Central Board of Revenue or the Government of India Finance Department (Central Revenues) are sent to the Income-tax Office addressed to the Inspecting Assistant

Commissioner

Commissioner, and letters received from the Income-tax Officer addressed to the Commissioner of Income-tax are signed by the former as 'for Inspecting Assistant Commissioner'. The appointment, therefore, is not of particular urgency.

34. The point raised in para 5 of notes is of some urgency now, for under section 1(2) of the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act,1939, as applied to this Station, Part II thereof must be brought into force before 1st April next. Part II has already been brought into force in British India with effect from 25th January 1941. Under the Appellate Tribunal Rules, the President of the Tribunal has already directed that appeals from the Civil and Military Station shall be heard and determined by the Calcutta Bench; but in the absence of a date being appointed, the Tribunal has no power to entertain such appeals from this Station. Transitory provisions in regard to matters pending before the Commissioner or the High Court are contained in Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act,1940, and proposals for its application to the Station have already been submitted to the Political Department. They may now be addressed to appoint a suitable date - perhaps 15th March 1941- on which Part II shall come into force. Under section 5-A of the Act, it may be notified that the Appellate Tribunal appointed by the Central Government under that section as in force in British India may be deemed to have been appointed under the Station Act. It is legally possible to provide tribunals functioning outside the Station to function in and for the Station. Under some of the enactments in force in the Station, it has been provided that the High Court of Madras shall for the purpose of a particular provision of the enactment be the High Court. After these 2 notifications issue, the British Indian Appellate Tribunal will have proper jurisdiction in this Station, and the rules made by it regulating its procedure and the procedure of Benches of that Tribunal will apply to appeals preferred from the Station.

As stated in para 33, when the Appellate Tribunal commences to function, the statutory duties of the Commissioner of appeal and revision contained in sections 32 and 33 of the Act will cease, and there will be no clash from the point of view of the working of the Act that the offices of the Commissioner and the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner are combined in one Officer. The point raised about the clash for purposes of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules will be taken up after the proposal regarding Commissioner functioning as Inspecting Assistant Commissioner is accepted.

41

An alternative has been added to the draft, and is for consideration. If for any reason the Political Department do not approve of the arrangement whereby the offices of the Commissioner and the Assistant Commissioner are combined in one Officer, the alternative suggestion of not having an Inspecting Assistant Commissioner for the Station might be considered. This suggestion is not new, and was once made in 1939. It was not accepted, however, and no reasons were given for the non-acceptance. 10.3.41

Secretary.

Para 1 of P.U.C. The objection advanced for 43
the combination of the functions of the Commissioner and of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner in one Officer is that the Act does not contemplate it. Political Department have not been able to show that there would really be any clash by reason of such combination. The Act, which is a Central enactment fashioned for operation in British India, would ofcourse not contemplate the combination of 2 separate offices in one Officer. That is a ~~theretn~~ theoretical examination of the question, and an interpretation of the provisions of the Act without taking the practical aspect of the question into consideration, it is submitted. But the proposal is in respect of a small Administered Area in which every administrative arrangement of British India cannot obviously be put into force. For instance an arrangement would be unthinkable in British India under which the head of the Government is the head of the Judiciary - in the Station the Resident is a High Court Judge, and until recently the Chief Commissioner of Coorg was the Judicial Commissioner of Coorg. Then again an arrangement would be unthinkable in British India under which a Sessions Judge is the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, for if in the working of certain Companies the Registrar discovered any fraud or any other offence, he ~~will~~ would have to take action, that is be the virtual prosecutor, and then try the case as a Sessions Judge. Then the head of the ~~Political~~ Police Department cannot be a magistrate in British India. Instances can be multiplied. In the circumstances prevailing in a small Administered Area, such combination of offices is inevitable. To use the argument of the Political Department, the

Act

Act does not contemplate an arrangement under which there is no Inspecting Assistant Commissioner at all in the class of income-tax authorities - under section 5(1) there shall be an Assistant Commissioner of Income tax for purposes of the Act. But the Political Department have approved of an arrangement under which there will be no Assistant Inspecting Commissioner in the future Administered Areas on retrocession. Perhaps the ruling must be accepted.

Ref at (N)

44. Para 2 of P.U.C. That certain statutory duties vest in the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner has not been overlooked by this Residency. Please see the concluding portion of notes in para 27. In addition to sections 23-A and 53(1) quoted by the Political Department, there is one more section (section 28), as a matter of fact, under which certain statutory functions vest in the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner. These functions, it may be noticed, consist only of according approval to certain action. Please see in this connection paras 11 to 13 of notes on R.Dis.No.34b-39. If it is only for this purpose of according approval that the appointment of Inspecting Assistant Commissioner should be made, that is not an insurmountable difficulty. And there is a precedent for the dispensing with of the appointment after retrocession. Political Department may, perhaps be requested to reconsider the matter.

(R)

45. If this course is not acceptable, there is the alternative course suggested in para 24 of notes. For orders.

ASRao 16.4.41 46. We may adopt the procedure in Cyprus - Harmon Coorg & Aden & suggest that B'lore be placed under the jurisdiction of a Madras Inspect. Instt. Cus: His functions merely consist of giving approval to certain acts. Presumably the Board of Rev. & the P.G

Secretary

have reconsidered the decision not to appoint these officers for Minor Administrations & ~~that~~ our Retrocession proposals will require altering in this respect.
We may suggest adopting the alternative given 47
in the last sentence of P.D. letter under reply & waive the Retrocession question.

Kept. 9/9/14.

It is submitted that the Political Department 48.
suggest the placing of Bangalore under the jurisdiction of ~~the~~ one of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioners of a neighbouring Province only as an alternative if no suitable officer is available. In paras 24 and 32 of notes the possibility of having a suitable local officer was discussed, and the arrangement of having Resident as Commissioner (as after retrocession) and Secretary as Inspecting Assistant Commissioner has not been put to the Political Department.

Although under the Act, the statutory duties 49 of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner are mainly in according approval to certain acts, the Income tax officer had always been officially consulting Captain Biscoe (Inspecting Assistant Commissioner) in important and difficult cases, and the necessity or desirability of having an officer on the spot need not be over emphasised. It appears the conditions prevailing in this Station cannot be parallel to those obtaining in some of the minor Administrations, in any case in Coorg. The Station income-tax revenue is now in the region of 5 lakhs a year and promises to mount up by reason of certain new conditions which are well known. (The income tax revenue in Coorg is not even a lakh a year). The recent amendments to the Income-tax Act have rendered its working a little ~~xxx~~ difficult and complicated. Separate proposals have been sent up to the Government of India for the appointment of an Inspector by reason of the increase of work and for survey work to be undertaken in the Station. It is submitted that it appears better to make local arrangements, and if that is impossible then we may adopt the arrangement in force in the province of Coorg. If approved, the remarks of the Income-tax Officer may be invited. For orders.

51. I think it is better to have a local Officer as Inspecting Assistant Commissioner and the arrangement suggested in para 24 viz. Secretary being Inspecting Assistant Commissioner and Resident being Commissioner may be recommended to the Political Department. Some time back the Collector who discussed with me the existing arrangements in the Station expressed himself in favour of the above.

52. If Bangalore were to be placed under the jurisdiction of the nearest Inspecting Assistant Commissioner in Madras Presidency, there may be extra cost by way of travelling allowance and very likely the question of M.A.T. making a contribution to Central on account of pay of Inspecting Assistant Commissioner and his staff may also arise, arise, H.A.T. being separate. We need not therefore go in for this alternative.

5 Pl. see from para 46. I am sorry to have to advise my dissent in this case. The functions of the Insp. Genl. Comm. seem to be mostly formal & advisory but we might, as F.Q. says, become involved in unnecessary expense if we appoint one from a neighbouring province.
14. We may approach to P.D. that Govt. should be Insp. Genl. Comm. + Revsh. Govt Commissioner +

suitable that the Head of an Administration should discharge the functions of an officer

case this arrangement has been sanctioned

APPOINTMENT OF INSPECTING ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF INCOME-TAX.

Sir,

I have the honour to refer to your endorsement No.F.27(2)-I.B./39, dated the 7th March 1940, and to suggest that the Secretary to the Resident may be appointed as Inspecting Assistant Commissioner in the Station in succession to the Officer on Special Duty. When part II of the Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1939, is brought into force, proposals for which have already been submitted, and the Appellate Tribunal commences to function the statutory duties of the Commissioner will cease, and it appears there should be no objection from the point of view of the working of the Income-tax Act to the offices of the Commissioner and of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner being combined in one Officer. A draft notification is enclosed for the consideration of His Excellency the Crown Representative.

2. If, however, this course is not acceptable, I suggest that no Inspecting Assistant Commissioner need be appointed for the Station, as in the case of certain Minor Administration please see letter from the Central Board of Revenue D.Dis.No.31 (7)-I.T./39, dated the 10th May 1939. From

The Secretary to His Excellency
the Crown Representative,

To

The Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore.

Dated New Delhi, the 2nd April 1941.

Appointment of Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to your letter No.R.F.168(1)-39/Judl., dated the 5th March 1941 and to say that the Income-tax Act, 1922 does not contemplate the functions of an Inspecting Assistant Commissioner and a Commissioner being combined in one officer. For example, in section 5(5) of the Act, express provision is made for the exercise by the Commissioner of the functions of the Appellate Assistant Commissioner in respect of any specified case or class of cases and by implication it follows that the Commissioner would not be competent to discharge the functions of an Inspecting Assistant Commissioner.

2. It is, however, considered necessary to appoint the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax for the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, as certain statutory functions have been assigned to him vide sections 23-A and 53(1) of the Income-tax Act, 1922, as amended by the Amendment Act of 1939. I am therefore to request you kindly to suggest the name and designation of a suitable officer for appointment as the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax. If no suitable officer is available, it is suggested as an alternative, that Bangalore could be placed under the jurisdiction of one of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioners of the neighbouring Province, as has been done in the case of Ajmer-Merwara, Coorg and Abu.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

- - - - - - -

Sir,

I have the honour to refer to your letter No.F.62-I.B./41 dated the 2nd April 1941, and to say that it is considered essential that the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax should be a local officer, as the requisitioning of the services of an officer from a British Indian Province ~~is attendan~~ ~~with the incurring of extra expendi~~ ~~ture and with numerous other~~ dis-advantages. I suggest, therefore, that the Resident may be appointed ~~as the~~ Commissioner of Income-tax, and the Secretary to the Resident ~~a~~ r. the Inspecting Assistant Commissione

has certain obvious →

It is ~~perhaps~~ no doubt not normally suitable that the Head of an Administration should discharge the functions of an officer subordinate to the Administration,

S. 5.
MGIPC—S5—1595(S&P)MFP—(M-944)—6-3-39—60,000 Pads.

but in this case, in view of the Appellate Tribunals just constituted, the functions of the Commissioner are nominal, and in any case this arrangement has been sanctioned for the Administered Areas in the event of retrocession of a portion of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore to the Mysore Darbar. Two draft notifications are enclosed for the consideration of his Excellency the Crown Representative. The notifications purport [~~purport~~] to make the appointments with effect from the date of their issue and not with retrospective effect as in the case of Notification No.50-I.B. dated the 6th March 1940, for the Commissioner of Income-tax has entertained review petitions during the period, and also because there has been no occasion when the statutory functions of the Inspecting Assistant Commissioner had to be discharged after the departure of the Officer on Special Duty, Mysore Residency, Bangalore.
